Approval of Minutes: approved with no revisions

Old business: CGE staff used the rubric designed

New business

1. Liberal Learning Task Force: Steele reported on statements at faculty senate that suggested delay. GEC can formulate talking points to respond to conversations about liberal learning: including Phi Beta Kappa. Members commit to attending discussions and advocating for inclusion of distinctly global learning outcomes in liberal learning.

Old Business

2. Institutional Partnerships: CGE team members have prepared a draft RFP for global engagement through institutional partnerships for consideration by the GEC.
  - a. Council suggested changes to the calendar for proposals to move preliminary discussion date to June 30 so that final decisions can be returned to faculty in time to see what awards will affect scheduling.
  - b. A vetting document will be added to the RFP for new partners.
  - c. Matching funding may include sabbatical, SOSA, and other institutional funding.
