Presentation to Academic Leaders this afternoon on student workload and engagement.

Collaborated on report with Brenda on alternatives to scantron and ways to evolve away from aging existing technology and gave to Tim Clydesdale and are waiting a response

3. Report from the Director of the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning; Brenda Leake

Announcement – Feb. 10 will be doing a video recorded interview with VP Felton on Inclusive practices and suggestions at request of Tim Clydesdale and Jeff Osborn, who wanted us to record a segment to highlight for asynchronous support of adjuncts

First Fridays – had 3 in fall: October: meet and greet with 2019 and 2020 cohort members; November: Megan Sellet and Beth Gallus – supporting students; December: Judi Cook – helping figure out ways in synchronous and asynchronous instruction to support group projects in Canvas; February: will be conversations with new faculty regarding supports that they need

Learning Communities mostly in a hold pattern except for the Docustory Learning Community, which should be ready to share in March

Good Reads:

2019-2020: 141 requested and participated in Good Reads;

2020-2021: 150 requested (72 ebooks, 62 print copies, some already had)

If Flex modes possible, 70 possibly said they'd come to campus for it; 38 said unsure; 40 said no

Will work on dates and times for Good Reads book chats in March

4. CETL Support Draft

Discussed and expanded on redraft of current CETL document and divided tasks up. David and Anne Marie will work on first section, Purpose; Brenda and Jody will work on second section, Where We Are; and Rachel, Judi, Maria and Elizabeth will work on third section, Where Do We Want to Be.

The second and third sections will be organized around 4 headings: Programming, Web Presence; Staff; and Space.

February 17th will be a working meeting. We will use same zoom meeting link and go into breakout rooms to work with our partners

March 3rd – Draft of each section ready to share with whole group
