

Teaching and Learning Council
Notes from the Meeting on 3/3/21

Present: Cook, Domingo, Eberly, Leake, Maratea, Mohebbi, Murray, Snider

Excused: Sims-Pottle, Weinstein

1) General Discussion

- a) The minutes from 2/3/21 were approved.

2) Update from Judi Cook:

- a) Judi will present to the Council of Deans a proposal to reimagine the College's blended and online course development. Judi will advocate for strategic employment of digital pedagogy.
- b) Because the PAWs system is not centralized, in-person courses were improperly coded as blended or online courses. Judi sent emails to faculty and staff to correct these errors.
- c) The Office of Instructional Design continues to offer timely and relevant workshops to faculty and staff such as Teaching Accessibility in Computer Science with Dr. Andrea Salgian and Idea Showcase: The Online Exhibit Assignment with Dr. Cynthia Paces. These workshops are offered live at a scheduled time and also recorded for faculty and staff to view at a later date.

3) Update from Brenda Leake:

- a) Good Reads —
  - i) The Teaching and Learning Center will offer a total of 5 “book chats” at various times via Zoom meetings on 3/15/21, 3/16/21 and 3/19/21.
  - ii) Each book chat should include a maximum of 25 participants. Note, 155 faculty and staff requested this year's Good Reads book selection.
- b) Learning Communities —
  - i) On 3/17/21, the Docustory Learning Community will premiere the Docustory at a screening with President Foster, the President's Cabinet and the students who participated in the project. After this initial screening, the Docustory will be released to the campus community.

4) TLC Report Recommendations: The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning:

- a) The remainder of the meeting was dedicated to working on the report.
