Minutes

Present: Mohammed Alabsi, Elizabeth Borland, Jean Brechman, Stuart Carroll, Dolores Dzuby, Cynthia Paces, Dimitris Papamichail, Taras Pavlovsky, Yuji Tosaka
Absent: Wendy Clement

1. Visit from Provost Osborn

The provost joined the council meeting and went over the selection criteria for the Gitenstein-Hart Sabbatical Prize, with emphasis on the alignment of the sabbatical project with TCNJ's current highest priorities and the potential for making a significant contribution to undergraduate education and scholarship in its field. He emphasized the need to select three candidates for the prize based on the criteria.

2. Review/approval of the minutes from the meeting on December 7, 2022

The minutes were approved with no corrections.

3. Review and discussion of proposals based on the evaluation spreadsheet with scores

The council members present reviewed and unanimously approved the final ranked evaluation spreadsheet to be forwarded to the Provost.

4. Gitenstein-Hart Sabbatical Prize

The council members reviewed the final ranked evaluation spreadsheet based on the selection criteria for the prize and selected three candidates to be forwarded to the provost for prize consideration.

5. Other business

The first spring meeting is February 1, 2023 1:30-2:50 pm. In spring meetings, the council will discuss requests for feedback (due January 31), the RFP for the next academic year, and action items identified in the fall meetings. Dean Pavlovsky was asked to request Academic Affairs to include a reminder about the deadline for requesting feedback when notification is sent to the applicants later this month.

Meeting adjourned at 10:43 am.
